Leung Hiu Pak

Flat B, 33/F, Block 7, CityOne, Shatin, N.T., Hong Kong

61322714 | kipperlhp@yahoo.com.hk

EDUCATION

The Chinese University of Hong Kong                                                                   Hong Kong
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science                                        September, 2012 – December, 2015
- Relevant Coursework: Software Engineering, Mobile Applications Development, Business Data and Database Management

Nanyang Technological University, Singapore                                                         Singapore
International Student Exchange Program - Computer Science                              August – December, 2015

WORK EXPERIENCE

Altitude Labs                                                                                                        Hong Kong
Software Engineer                                                                            June, 2018 – November, 2019
- Worked as a full-stack developer for both frontend (ReactJs) and backend (NodeJs)
- Built responsive and cross-browser web applications for clients
- Designed database structures and developed RESTful API
- Participated in system architecture and software design, provided good user experiences
- Projects involved:
  o Tab Asia - A platform for planning and booking group dining experiences, with a huge variety of dining enhancements and add-on services. Bookers could also do guest invitation and management, customization for different menu options. An Admin panel was also provided for admin, restaurant and add-on partners to do content and data management
  o Meet the Mentors - A charity-based platform for professionals and experts to donate time for providing knowledge and insights to mentees through meetings

Ahsay Systems Corporation Limited                                                                       Hong Kong
Business System Developer                                                                      March, 2016 – June, 2018
- Enhanced the online sales management system
  o Developed enhancement functions for online shopping, license and transaction management, which involved an annual revenue of over HKD55,000,000 and more than 9,000 users over the world
  o Implemented statistic dashboard and analysis with automated financial reports
- Designed and developed an online portal for business partners
  o Integrated multiple platforms for request ticket submission, product news, online shop
  o Developed a voting function and a pricing calculator based on purchase histories and accumulated discounts
- Maintained the internal task and process management system
  o Generated task reports and established new functions for performance evaluation

China Mobile International                                                                                      Hong Kong
Intern - IT                                                                                                       June – July, 2015
- Provided IT operations support, computer troubleshooting to different departments
- Assisted in infrastructure works, e.g. disk cloning with Ghost, ESXi servers and virtual machines set up

Democratic Party                                                                                                  Hong Kong
Programming assistant                                                                                   June – August, 2014
- Assisted in the implementation of the database system of Hong Kong residents' information in 18 regions, with a responsive web user interface and barcode scanner integration

The Chinese University of Hong Kong                                                                   Hong Kong
Junior research assistant, VeriGuide Team                                                        May – August, 2013
- Assisted in the development of the plagiarism checking system in the school

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

The Society of Magic, CUHK                                                                                 Hong Kong
Team leader of Magic Team                                                               March, 2013 – February, 2014
- Organized activities and performances for more than 400 members, coordinated the 2013 Joint University Magic Tour

SKILLS, HOBBIES & INTERESTS

Languages: Native in Cantonese; Fluent in English and Mandarin
Technical Skills: Java, C, JavaScript, ReactJs, NodeJs, VBScript, ASP, MySQL, MSSQL, Android Development
Hobbies & Interests: Violin, Table Tennis, Thai Boxing